Subject: Re: Chase Robinson v. Robert De Niro, Canal Productions, Inc. et al

Go fishing with your Dad. Call me when you return.

As to your request for documents, we will consider the request, but I rarely provide discovery before a Complaint is filed.

Under the circumstances, I suggest that Mr. De Niro consider the comments, actions and duties assigned to Ms. Robinson, which he and his authorized representatives effectuated in the workplace, whether directed towards Ms. Robinson and similarly situated women (" women can have a baby whenever they want;" "go get sperm from ██████████, I'm sure it will be free;" "you don't have kids so I don't need to pay you the same as [REDACTED]"), as well as comments directed towards purported independent contractors such as [REDACTED] and/or [REDACTED], that were witnessed and experienced by Ms. Robinson in the course and scope of her 11 plus years of employment. Further, please consider that 11 years of dealing with Mr. De Niro in a personal capacity characterized as "employment" is deserving of an appropriate Severance Agreement arrangement.

All the best in your fishing efforts, as Canada is a great place to be with your Dad, whether or not fish are caught.

Regards,

Jeffrey W. Pagano
