NOTICE OF WAGE AND HOUR CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT AGAINST COSTCO WHOLESALE CORPORATION

Stiller et al. v. Costco Wholesale Corporation
(formerly Pytelewski et al. v. Costco Wholesale Corporation)
Case No. 3:09-CV-02473-H (BGS)
United States District Court, Southern District of California

INTRODUCTION

This Notice tells you how you might become part of a lawsuit by Costco warehouse workers under federal law for lost wages.

THE LAWSUIT

The named plaintiffs claim that Costco workers could not leave work right away after clocking out from closing shifts because managers “locked down” warehouses during cash register and jewelry pulls. They say that Costco should pay its employees for “lockdown” delays.

WHO CAN TAKE PART

You can elect to take part in the suit for lost wages if you worked full time for Costco anywhere in the United States between March 1, 2008 and October 1, 2009, and you were paid by the hour, and “lockdowns” kept you at work after clocking out, and you were not paid for that time. If you WANT to take part in the suit for lost wages, you MUST send in a completed Election Form (see enclosed Form) stating your intent to JOIN the lawsuit.

YOU MUST DECIDE SOON

If you want join the lawsuit you MUST send a completed Election Form to the address on the Form, postmarked within 60 days of the date of this Notice - that is, no later than May 10, 2011.

Federal law prohibits anyone from discriminating or retaliating against you for joining or deciding not to join in this lawsuit.

LEGAL REPRESENTATION AND YOUR RIGHTS IF YOU PARTICIPATE

The Law Firm of Sanford Wittels & Heisler, LLP and the Law Firm of Chapin Fitzgerald Sullivan, LLP have been representing the named plaintiffs and will now be Class Counsel for people who join the Class. If you join, Class Counsel will automatically represent you, or you can hire your own lawyer for your claim.
